ABOUT THAILAND

The gorgeous beaches that surround Phuket, which is nestled in the lap of the great Andaman Sea, have long worked like a charm for all beach lovers. Because it is Thailand's largest island, it is also the most active in the country. The Sino-colonial palaces, as well as Big Buddha and Wat Chalong, offer a glimpse of Phuket's eclectic culture. When you visit Phi Phi Island, which was featured in Leonardo Dicaprio's hit film The Beach, share the screens of Hollywood movies. Seeing the beautiful limestone karsts rising skyward from the sea, as well as the soothing flora that covers the majority of the island, provides a sense of tranquilly that one can only imagine. When you witness the waves breaking on the breathtakingly gorgeous coral reefs, you'll be lost in the splendour of Phi Phi Island. While you're here, take advantage of the different things the area has to offer to keep your adrenaline pumping.

Visit the Thai island of Koh Phangan for a colourful 7-day tour that includes a full moon party, snorkelling, and adventure activities like zip line and snorkelling.
